This matter comes before the Court for a review of the magistrate's Report and Recommendation pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B), and Local Rule 73.02(B)(2)(c), D.S.C., filed on December 2, 2008. The plaintiff originally brought this habeas corpus petition pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254 on June 17, 2008. The respondent filed a Motion for Summary Judgment on September 24, 2008. After receiving an order pursuant to Roseboro v. Garrison, 528 F.2d 309 (4th Cir. 1975) issued on September 25, 2008, the petitioner failed to file a response. The court granted a ten day extension on November 5, 2008 in which the petitioner had to file a response to the respondent's motion for summary judgment. The petitioner still failed to file a response. The magistrate recommends dismissing the petition with prejudice for failure to prosecute. For the reasons stated herein, this Court adopts the magistrate's Report and Recommendation in its entirety.

Petitioner brings this claim pro se. This Court is required to construe pro se pleadings liberally. Such pleadings are held to a less stringent standard than those drafted by attorneys. See Gordon v. Leeke, 574 F.2d 1147, 1151 (4th Cir. 1978). This Court is charged with liberally construing a pleading filed by a pro se litigant to allow for the development of a potentially meritorious claim. See Boag v. MacDougall, 454 U.S. 364, 365 (1982).

The magistrate makes only a recommendation to this Court. The recommendation has no presumptive weight, and responsibility for making a final determination remains with this Court. Mathews v. Weber, 423 U.S. 261, 270-71 (1976). This Court is charged with making a de novo determination of those portions of the Report and Recommendation to which specific objection is made, and this Court may "accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the findings or recommendations made by the magistrate." 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). This Court may also "receive further evidence or recommit the matter to the magistrate with instructions." Id. In the absence of specific objections, this Court need not give a detailed explanation for adopting the recommendation. Camby v. Davis, 718 F.2d 198 (4th Cir. 1983). The petitioner did not file any objections.

After reviewing the magistrate's Report and Recommendation, the plaintiff's motion, and the relevant case law, this Court finds that the magistrate applied sound legal principles to the facts of this case in arriving at his recommendation. Therefore, this Court adopts the magistrate's Report and Recommendation in its entirety.

IT IS THEREFORE SO ORDERED THAT the petition be DISMISSED with prejudice for failure to prosecute.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

G. ROSS ANDERSON, JR.
